THE SHOESTRING STRIP

223rd Street School Board in First Meeting at City Park

By BILLIE ROBERTSON or Mrs. Goolsby, FA 8-7385
The first meeting of the 223rd St. School Board was held Sept. 5 at the Torrance Park. A potluck luncheon was served. Many of the women brought their children with everyone joining in the fun. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. David Goolsby. Nearly all members of the board were present. After the treasurer's report the program for the year was read.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Borway of Mojave, were week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Maland. Mr. Borway and Mr. Maland are cousins, and formerly lived in Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Hilsabeck also are visiting the Malands. They are just married and plan on making their home in Torrance.

Some colored negatives of a wedding were found between 218th St. and Carson last week. The owner may pick these up at the home of Mrs. Ebersole at 1554 W. 218th, or you can phone her at FA 8-7028.

A paper drive will be held at the 223rd St. School on Sept. 28 from 8 to 1. Anyone wishing to have papers picked up may call me or Mary Goolsby at FA 8-5161, or just put your papers out in front of the house on the curb.

The PTA of 223rd St. School wonders if the residents of the area would like to have the school sponsor a Cub Scout Pack and Boy Scout Troop. If so they will be in need of some leaders. Please call me their infant son, Gerardo. The Minot Ruggs, of 1506 W. 214th St., are the happy grandparents of a new granddaughter, born Sept. 4 to their daughter Mrs. Don Headley, who now lives on 204th St. The little girl has been named Gayle Ann and she has a brother, Leigh Miles. To those who knew Lenore, (Rugg) go over and look the new princess over, she would love to have you drop in for tea.

A precious bundle was delivered recently to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fields, 1141 Jay St. The parents are so happy with the little one who has been named Treasure Ann. She tipped the scales last Tuesday weighing 7 lbs. and 4 ozs. She is really ruling the roost, as she is the first child for the Fields.

On Saturday, Lana, who is my seven year old daughter, was in her first parade. She is with the Torrance Majorettes led by Rod White. She helped several thousands of people of Huntington Park celebrate its 50th birthday. She and eight other girls from the Torrance area did Torrance proud by doing a good job.

Plans had been made to have a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the corner of Hall-dale and 224th St. But due to the trouble that the workers had with the water lines on 223rd St., the ceremony will be postponed from Oct. 5 to Nov. 2. The ceremony will be to dedicate the finished streets in the strip. Plans will be published later in this column.

We are all so glad that the 223rd St. crossing is in. We have worked so many years to get things done here and when we succeed we are very proud of ourselves and those who help us in succeeding. The crossing will put the children right near the school. Please see that your children cross there The guard will take very good care of your children.

LOMITA LIMELIGHT

Barons Schedule Fall Dance At Lomita Park for Saturday Eve

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA 8-0788
Carol Scherer was surprised on her birthday last Saturday by a birthday party given her by her husband, Dick. The birthday cake was white, trimmed in yellow and green twirls which met to form a bow. The inscription, "Happy Birthday," was boldly written across the cake. The Scherers and guests spent the evening dancing. Those invited were Sam Lennox, Nancy Waterman, Bill Tanner, Patty Collins, and Warren Stamps.

The Barons, teen-age club sponsored by the Lomita Park, have scheduled their Fall Teen-age Dance for Sept. 22. Dancing will be to the Shades of Rhythm Orchestra, and other well known artists will add to the evening's entertainment.

Public is invited to join in the four hours of dancing which begins at 8 p.m.

The Kiwadaw group of the Campfire Girls held a beach party at Colorado Lagoon. The swim meet was in order to win additional points toward the Fire Makers rank. The girls had to do all the shopping and preparing of the lunch taken on the party.

Girls receiving points were Diane and Judy Gleagorn, Terry Hamilton, Laura Kaufman, Ann Rohl. Guardians were Mrs. Helen Gleagorn and Mrs. Robert Rohl.

The Jobs Daughters Mother Club met at the home of Ruth Wilson, on 28247 Ocean View, to discuss Christmas plans. The group decided that to each meeting, members would bring a "white elephant," so that by Christmas a White Elephant table would be completed. Helmi Chudy acted as co-hostess, and helped serve nearly 20 members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mary Mines on Oct. 10.

Margaret Wittnebel made a one layer sheet cake in the shape of a star, and decorated it with red roses and green leaves on a white background. "Happy Birthday Mother" was inscribed in raised white lettering edged with red. Verna Flynn, second daughter of Mrs. Brumbelow, helped serve refreshments.

Musical selections from the family provided entertainment throughout the evening. Among the guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. David Rowe, Mrs. Irene McCrosson, Eugene Johnson, Velda Price, Janet Pearson, Evelyn Pearson, Alice J. Parker, Mrs. Dean and Iris Brumbelow.

Inez Brumbelow, president of the Val-De-Nex Music and Record Club, received many gifts, flowers and cards from out of state members.

Corrine Hanson, new mother the fourth time over, was honored at a shower given her by Ruth Vandwinter last Thursday.

Baby Bingo provided entertainment with a number of winners taking prizes from previous winners. There was no problem of boy or girl gifts as the baby, a girl, had arrived two weeks prior to the shower. Several of the young lady's gifts were tried on her as they were opened. Her big sister, Donna, helped open the many gifts.

Guests were Janet Erickson, Geniel Holder, Madge Brown, June Bechtold, Jeannine Bechtold, Ellen Maxham, Charlotte Burton, Eulalia Snyder, Jean Diffe, Helen Bench, Myrtle Whittington, Lucina Johnson, Myrtle Burton, Annabelle Mullin, Pat Carter, Dorothy Preece, Ella Mitchell, Emma Cornelius, Nelda Whitehead and daughter, Linda, Elaine Burton, and Alice Palczewski.

Steven McCrosson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McCrosson, celebrated his fourth birthday at Knott's Berry Farm last week. With him were his sister, Sharon, a friend, Milton, and his grandmother, Inez Brumbelow.
